

Agenda

8:30 – 9:00Registration/
Coffee Service

9:05 – 9:35Opening Session, C122
Marcela Cuellar, Ph.D.
University of California,
Davis

9:40 – 10:40Session 1

10:50 – 11:50 ...Session 2

12:00 – 1:00Lunch, C122

12:00 – 12:30 ...Networking

12:30 – 1:00Keynote
Jean Floten, Chancellor,
Western Governors
University, Washington

1:10 – 1:55Student Session

2:00 – 2:50Session 3

3:00 – 3:30Closing Session, C122
Chris Bell, Conference Chair

Jean Floten

Jean Floten became the first chancellor of WGU Washington in 2011. Having dedicated her career to postsecondary education, Chancellor Floten was drawn to the university's mission of expanding access to affordable higher education. Mrs. Floten served as Bellevue College's President for more than 22 years where, among her accomplishments, she championed baccalaureate degree development, placing the college among the first in the state to offer applied baccalaureate degrees. Recognized as a leader in higher education, she is often asked to speak throughout the nation on educational issues, and was recently named one of Seattle's "Most Influential People" by Seattle Magazine. Mrs. Floten has served on the national community college advisory board of Educational Testing Service, the Board of Directors of the Bellevue Chamber of Commerce and the Key Bank Advisory Board. She was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Letters by City University in 2006 and earned Master of Science and Bachelor of Arts degrees from Portland State University.

Marcela Cuellar

Dr. Marcela Cuellar is an Assistant Professor at the School of Education at the University of California, Davis. Her research examines issues of access and equity in higher education, Latina/o student success, and Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs). She has published in the Review of Higher Education, Community College Review, and the Journal of Diversity in Higher Education. Prior to earning her Ph.D. from UCLA's Graduate School of Education and Information Studies, Dr. Cuellar worked in educational outreach programs in the San Francisco Bay area and San Diego.

Washington State Applied Baccalaureate Conference

Wednesday, November 2, 2016

South Seattle College
Georgetown Campus
6737 Corson Avenue South
Seattle, WA 98108

Session Topics

Topics run concurrently,
please choose one for each session.

Session 1 9:40 – 10:40

C111

Applied Baccalaureate Approval Process

Joyce Hammer, Director Transfer Education, SBCTC;
Malcolm Grothe, Vice-Chancellor, Seattle Colleges;

This session concentrates on steps to get a new BAS degree approved by the Washington State Board for Community and Technical Colleges. Approval steps will be discussed in detail. Time-frame, financial plan, and accreditation will also be addressed.

C207

Working with BAS Advisory Committees

Chris Bell, Director of Baccalaureate Development Bellevue College; Suzanne Marks, Chair, Business Management, Bellevue College; Brian Shive, Senior Principal Architect (Ret.), Microsoft

This session undertakes creation of a BAS Advisory Board. What is the role of an Advisory Board? How do you put one together? What role do board members play in program design and development?

C110

High School Pathways and the BAS degree

Shanon Reedy, Program Manager, IT, Bellevue College;
Tanya Rettinger, Director Tech Prep, Bellevue College;
Tamara Hilton, Design Program Manager & Career Start Advisor, Highline College; Linda Kepler, Bellevue College High School Programs; Karen Hay, Director, WANIC Skill Center

How do you effectively market a BAS program to high school students? The panel will discuss multiple pathways for high school student to enter a BAS program.

C208

BAS Programs and Underserved Populations

Marcela Cuellar, Assistant Professor, University of California, Davis Tanya Powers, Director Workforce and Baccalaureate Education, Highline College

This session explores approaches to support underserved populations in BAS degree programs. Recommendations are offered based on Marcela Cuellar's research.

Session 2 10:50 – 11:50

C110

Green River College: The Value of Real-World Projects

Jami Schwarzwald, Kimberly Praxel, Josh Hawks,
Ben Arnold

Students from the Green River Community College have been solving real problems in the community and working with live clients. Students will discuss building a website for the Kent Food Bank and an APP to measure student emotional health for a local Auburn teacher.

C111

BAS Programs: Faculty Best Practices

Tim Culler, MBA, BAS Faculty Lead, Application Development, Renton Technical College; Samantha Dolan, Ph.D., BAS Faculty Lead, ECE, North Seattle College; Connie Smejkal, Associate Professor, Business Administration, Centralia College

Lessons Learned. What does it mean to be a BAS Development Faculty Lead? The session will address classroom and demographic issues.

C207

The College Internal Approval Process

Chris Bell, Director of Baccalaureate Development;
Lisa LaPointe, Undergraduate Librarian; Iulia Zabodov, Program Manager, Office of Instruction; Jennifer Prekeges, Chair Nuclear Medicine Technology, (Bellevue College).

This session undertakes the BAS internal approval process at colleges. The discussion will include: Curriculum Advisory Committees, program and course outcomes, library resources & software requirements. The presenters share successes and frustrations at one college.

C208

BAS Student Entry: A Theoretical Perspective

Jason Schlegel, Director of Veteran Services,
Columbia Basin College

While studies have explored student entry in higher education, no published research has yet addressed BAS student entry from a theoretical perspective (Floyd, et al., 2009; Seidman, 2005). Recent findings from a grounded theory study on why BAS students choose to enter a BAS degree program will be shared.

Student Session 1:10 – 1:55

C110, C111, C207

BAS programs are all about helping students meet their personal, professional, and academic goals. In this session, you'll hear from students themselves about their experience in BAS programs around the state. Panelists include current students and alumni from South Seattle, Seattle Central, North Seattle, Bellevue, and Green River colleges.

Session 3 2:05 – 2:50

C111

BAS Leadership Essentials: We're Not in Kansas Anymore

Linda Crerar, Director Center for Excellence for Homeland Security, Pierce College; Jamie Krause, Special Projects, HSEM BAS, Pierce College; Jo Ann Baria, VP Workforce, Economic and Professional Development, Pierce College

This session applies leadership lessons from The Wizard of Oz to reveal how Pierce College leveraged the mapping of Homeland Security Emergency Management career pathways to establish the online BAS-HSEM degree.

C110

BAS programs and Prior Learning Credit: The Good, the Bad and the Ugly

Victoria Hardy, CFM, ASHRAE Associate Lead Faculty BAS in Sustainable Building Science Technology Georgetown Campus – South Seattle College; Dr. Mary Beans, Lead Faculty Coordinator, BAS in PTEID, South Seattle College

This session will discuss implementation of the new guidelines for Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) at South Seattle College for students in the BAS in Sustainable Building Science Technology and Professional Technical Education and Instructional Design

C208

BAS Workshop: Certificates, Articulation and Other Concerns Q & A

Joyce Hammer, Director Transfer Education, SBCTC;
Malcolm Grothe, Vice-Chancellor, Seattle Colleges;
Darby Kaikkonen, Policy Analyst, SBCTC, Mike Potter, Dean, Program Innovation, Lake Washington Institute of Technology;
Chris Bell, Director of Baccalaureate Development

Mike Potter leads a discussion on hot topics for BAS programs. Hear the latest on certificates, State-wide articulation, library resources, BAS data and general education. This is an open, working session, so bring your concerns.